

77th Commencement Ceremony

May 18, 2024

The Star-Spangled Banner

by Francis Scott Key

Oh, say, can you see? By the dawn's early light

What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;

Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,

O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming.

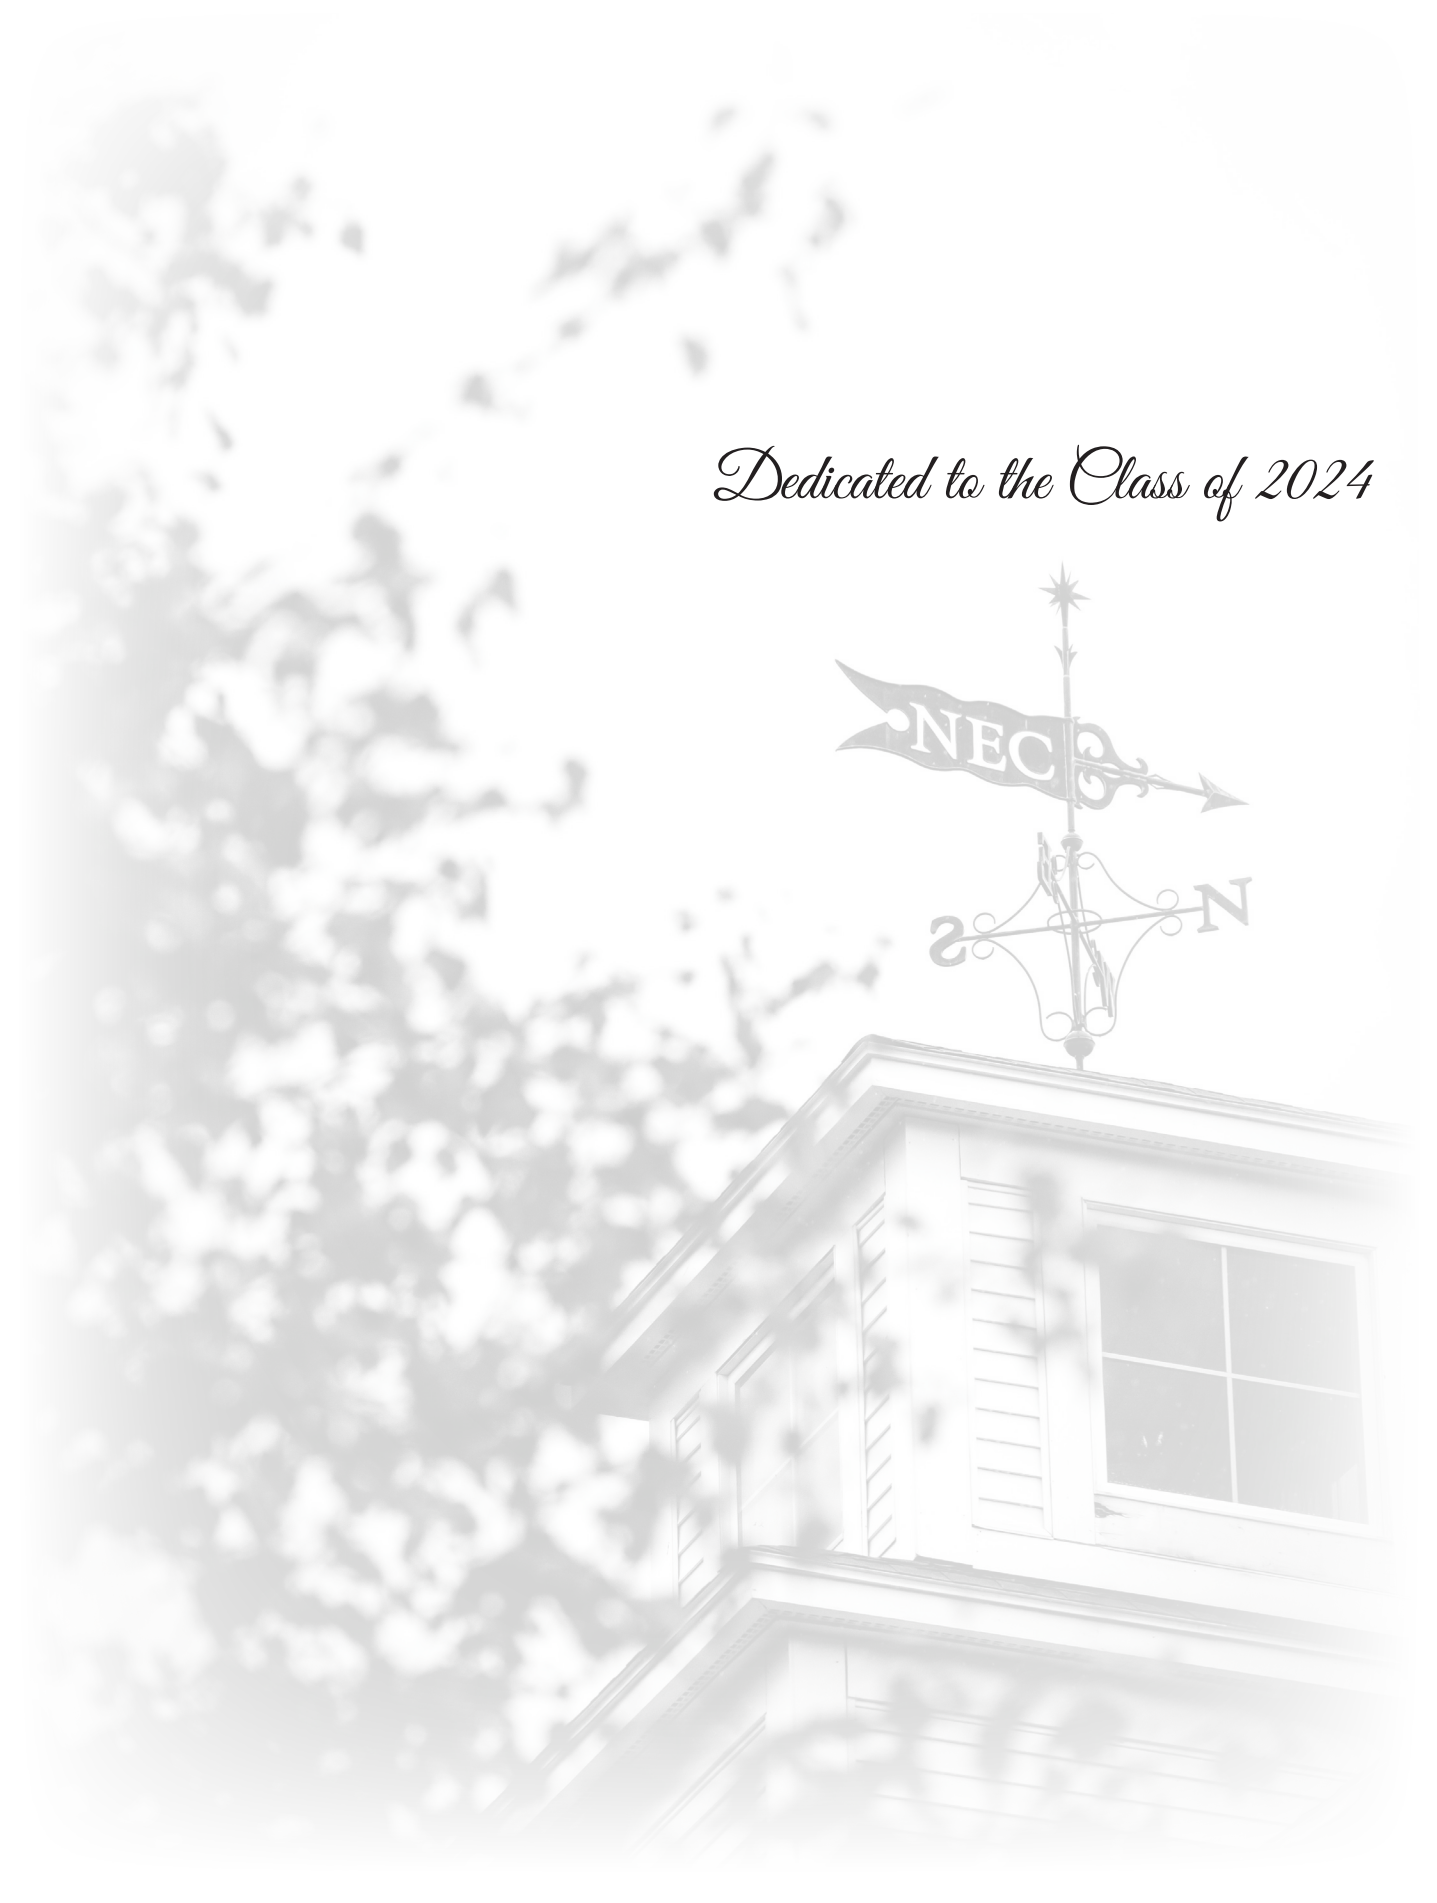

And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,

Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there:

Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave?

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Dedicated to the Class of 2024

Adjunct Faculty Award for Teaching Excellence: Presented to a member of the adjunct faculty whose exceptional teaching skills, mastery of subject matter, and ability to inspire and focus on student success are recognized

Robert A. Kilgore Faculty Award: Presented to a member of the faculty whose distinguished service to the teaching profession is recognized by students, staff, and fellow faculty members

Academic Regalia: A Brief History

The most visible part of any commencement is the traditional cap and gown, or academic regalia. This centuries-old tradition provides a visual distinction of academic degrees and the institution granting that degree. Gowns for three levels of degrees are distinguished mainly by sleeve design. Associate and bachelor's gowns have open sleeves. Master's gowns have an oblong tail below the sleeve opening, and doctoral gowns are distinguished by three velvet bars on each sleeve and velvet trim on the gown's front.

Academic hoods are an integral part of a graduate's regalia. Colors inside the hoods identify the institution conferring the degree and usually have a black shell trimmed in velvet. The color and width of the velvet trim, or hood border, represents the graduate's academic degree or field of learning.

At New England College, academic regalia is worn annually at Convocation, Founders Day, and Commencement—the three celebratory milestones of our academic year. Caps, gowns, and academic costume have been worn since the Middle Ages in Europe and Colonial times in America, and we are proud to continue the tradition.

Academic Mace

As the longest standing faculty members, Cynthia Burns Martin, MBA, Associate Dean of Institutional Effectiveness, and Debra Dunlop, BA '76, PhD—Dean of the Science, Health, and Exercise Division—will lead the New England College faculty in procession. The Academic Mace, carried by Associate Dean Burns, is a gift from the Class of 1973 in honor of their 50th reunion and the inauguration of President Lesperance. The academic mace symbolizes the authority, prestige, and scholarly tradition of the institution, adding a sense of dignity to formal academic ceremonies.

Honorary Degree Recipient and Commencement Speaker

Garry Trudeau, Pulitzer Prize-winning cartoonist Doctor of Humane Letters, *honoris causa

Garry Trudeau attended Yale University, where he received his BA and MFA in graphic design. He launched the Doonesbury comic strip in 1970, and the strip currently appears in nearly 1,200 daily and Sunday newspapers in the U.S. and abroad. His work has been collected in 64 hardcover, trade paperback, and mass-market editions, which have cumulatively sold over seven million copies worldwide. Trudeau became the first comic strip artist ever to be awarded a Pulitzer Prize for editorial cartooning. He was a Pulitzer Prize finalist in 1989, 2004, and 2005. In 2020, he published Dbury@50: The Complete Digital Doonesbury, a limited-edition book, poster, and USB set. His most recent book is Former Guy, the fourth book in his Trump series following Lewser!, #Sad!, and Yuge!.

He wrote and co-directed the animated film A Doonesbury Special for NBC-TV in 1977. The film was nominated for an Academy Award and received the Special Jury Prize at the Cannes Film Festival.

Collaborating with composer Elizabeth Swados in 1983, Trudeau wrote the book and lyrics for the Broadway musical, Doonesbury, for which he was nominated for two Drama Desk Awards. A cast album of the show, recorded for MCA, received a Grammy nomination. Trudeau again collaborated with Swados in 1984 on Rap Master Ronnie, a satirical revue about the Reagan Administration that opened off-Broadway at the Village Gate. Over the next four years, the show was continuously updated for numerous productions around the country. A filmed version of Rap Master Ronnie featured Jim Morris, the Smothers Brothers, and Jon Cryer and was broadcast on Cinemax in 1988.

In 1988, Trudeau wrote and co-produced HBO's critically acclaimed Tanner '88, a satiric look at that year's presidential election campaign. The show won several awards both in the U.S. and abroad, including the gold medal for Best Television Series at the Cannes Television Festival and Best Imported Program from the British Broadcasting Press Guild. Tanner '88 also earned an Emmy and four ACE award nominations. In 2004, he wrote and co-produced a sequel series, Tanner on Tanner, for the Sundance Channel.

In February 2000, Trudeau, working with Dotcomix, launched Duke2000, a presidential campaign and website featuring a real-time 3-D streaming-animation character. Nearly 30 campaign videos were created for the site, and Ambassador Duke was interviewed live by satellite on Larry King Live, Today, The Charlie Rose Show, and 60 other local TV news programs.

In 2013, he created, produced, and wrote Alpha House, a political sitcom about four Republican senators sharing a house in Washington, D.C. The first streaming-only production of Amazon Studios, it starred John Goodman, Mark Consuelos, Clark Johnson, Matt Malloy, Wanda Sykes, and Cynthia Nixon.

Trudeau has contributed articles to publications such as Harper's, Rolling Stone, The New Republic, The New Yorker, New York, and The Washington Post. For five years, he was an occasional columnist for The New York Times op-ed page and was later a contributing essayist for Time Magazine. He has been inducted as a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

In recognition of his work on wounded warriors, Trudeau has been presented with the Commander's Award for Public Service by the Department of Army, the Commander's Award from Disabled American Veterans, the President's Award for Excellence in the Arts from Vietnam Veterans of America, the Distinguished Public Service Award from the American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, and a special citation from the Vet Centers. From 2005 to 2014, his website hosted The Sandbox, a milblog posting over 800 essays by deployed soldiers, returned vets, caregivers, and spouses.

Trudeau lives in New York City with his wife, Jane Pauley. They have three grown children.

Hail Thee New England

Hail thee New Eng - land!
To thy dear por - tals

How can we part from thee?
we came to seek our fame,

We are thy loy - al ones,
firm was our faith in thee,

faith - ful and true.
pride in thy name.

For thee we sing thy praise,
The hap - py days are o'er,

for all thy glor - ious days.
we have the mem - o - ry

No oth - er can we love
of all our col - lege days,

save thee a - lone.
dear N. E. C.

Adapted from "How Can I Leave Thee?" by Robert Wesley Feero, Class of '51

The list of graduates in this program includes graduates and candidates for the degrees listed. The diploma or official New England College transcript is the official record of graduation. Academic recognitions are based on standing at the time of publication.
